

Lord, Teach Us To Pray

Thursdays, March 21 through April 25 ~ 10:00a to 11:30a ~ Activities Room

One day Jesus disciples came to him with a request, "Lord, teach us to pray." Could it be that the desire to pray is deep within each of us, but the ability to pray is taught? It seems that the way we Lutherans are taught to pray is intercessory prayer, praying for others, which is the prayer style we experience in worship from week to week, and the style we find in most devotional books. While intercessory prayer is an important way to pray, there are many other meaningful ways to pray in the Christian tradition. Each Thursday morning from March 21 through April 25, fellow-Servant Rev. Stewart McDonald will lead us through an experience of Christian prayer including Liturgical Prayer, Prayers of Repetition, Praying Scripture, Praying the Day, Prayers of Silence, and Celtic Prayer.

Thursday, March 21	Introduction to Prayer and Liturgical Prayer
Thursday, March 28	Prayers of Repetition
Thursday, April 4	Praying Scripture
Thursday, April 11	Praying the Day
Thursday, April 18	Prayer of Silence
Thursday, April 25	Celtic Prayer
